How does the Flying Dinner work?

All participants are assigned to a high table with 3–4 conversation partners. After each course there will be a rotation, i. e. in three speed rounds you will meet new contacts with whom you can talk for 15–20 minutes. In this way, you will get to know a large number of exciting women in one evening.

Registration

Please register in writing by October 28th 2023, providing your contact details (name, company, position) to alina.tillmann@bme.de. The number of participants is limited to female procurement leader with a minimum of 3 years of working experience. First come, first served. The event is free of charge thanks to the support of Lufthansa Group and BME e.V.

We are happy to welcome you in Frankfurt!
